THE LEADER

FORT STREET, NEAR BERETANIA

KAUAI'S TEMPLE OF FASHION

THE largest independent general merchandise store on Kauai. We take an immense amount of pride in this plain, solid statement. There is not a man on Kauai who does not know that when he buys anything at one of our stores the goods are going to be exactly as represented and the price a little lower than he can get anywhere else, and he knows, too, that he is going to get a square deal.

Grocery Department

Quality counts. Yes, quality counts, every time. This is demonstrated in the rapidly increasing demand for our

PURITAN BUTTER

the best butter ever made. Choice dairy butter. Butter so sweet and delicious in flavor that everybody wants it. Better get some; you'll find it far above the butter you get most places.

CANNED VEGETABLES

Canned vegetables fresh from the garden. It really is delightful to have for dinner these days, vegetables like those we get in the early spring. Every can is guaranteed. That means bring it back and get your money if dissatisfied.

TABLE DELICACIES

Table delicacies-bargains. Remarkable August and September offerings. Our table delicacies are the leading feature of our grocery department. They are of specially fine grade and are going at prices that would make them remarkable values even if they were of ordinary grades.

OUR QUICK DELIVERY

A big, modern Buick truck, delivers your order in less time and in better condition than any other store on Kauai.

nolulu by Saturday's boat.

Some Interesting Personal Mention

Miss Mumford and Miss Roscoe are spending a week at the Isenberg Mountain House. They will return to-morrow.

Ashton Hogg, eldest son of J. A.
Hogg, manager of the Kanai Garage, left for Honolulu last Saturday, from whence he will sail shortly for the coast where he will enter the Oregon Agriculture College.

Miss Roscoe, one of the new teachers for the Lihue School, arrived last Wednesday. Miss Roscoe is from California, and comes very highly recommended.

ulu Store, went to Honolulu Saturday to hear the band concert.

Hon. Charles Rice and Family are spending a vacation at the Knudsen Mountain House.

Supervisor Eben Low is still carrying on a fight against graft in the Board of Supervisors. He says that the bill presented for the repairs for the Mayor's automobile is not straight. He is holding up the bill for August which amounts to $165.00.

J. J. Dowling, for several years Superintendent of the Koolou Railway, and for some time manager of the Hawaiian Preserving Co., Honolulu, died Thursday, following an operation for ulceration of the spleen.

dren were passengers for Honolulu last Saturday.

Mr. A. K. Akana, of Honolulu, but who has been the guest of his parents in Kalihiwai for a vacation, returned to the city last Tuesday.

J. K. Apolo, a prominent farmer residing in the Anahola district, returned Wednesday from a business trip to the city.

Dr. Glaisyer is on a business trip to Honolulu.

Only A Drummer

It was Sunday night in Waimua,
I was gazing, in the bright refreshing air,
Over the bridge I strolled—Sighing for the days of old.

'Twas a drummer—
On the bridge was he—Looking to see
His damsel free—
Then suddenly, with a grasp,
He held her right hand fast,
And whispered low—
So soft and low—

"Why aren't we on the track?
Waimua for me," says he—
"In this kingdom by the sea,
Where the moon will shine—
And the stars will pine With the little girl I long be,"
V. V. A.

O, The Moon!

Oh, it's a beautiful night in Waimua,
But what the use, the fellows are gone,
No use for the moon to be rolling along,
With no drummers to spoon around—

The moon was late—a few days late—
And the poor old boy, lost his fate—
"Now," says he "I'll never agree, For Kauai is no good for me—So I'll say 'good bye' with one more sigh—
As I'm leaving forever, see?"
V. V. A.

It is reported that the Filipinos object to the microscopical examination, and that other methods will be resorted to in the future.
At last the Kapaa land leases are said to be in a condition that will meet the approval of all parties concerned.

Maderos was nearly mobbed by an angry crowd who took this method of expressing their unwell-come to the would-be ruler.

The Supervisors' meeting last Wednesday, was the longest session held this year. Much important business was transacted relative to contract road work.

Prose Poem On The Common Hog

Consider for a moment the hog.
The hog is nature's sedative. He is the antithesis of excitement and the anaesthetic of worry. When frayed nerves cry out in protest and the tired brain aches, surfeit of care or pleasure, go on then to the humble pig sty and learn a lesson of repose.

What does the farmer do when the hired man gives notice of the grasshoppers threatening to take the upper eighty? He heads for the hog lot, and, with his elbows on the top rail and one foot in an intermediate crack he watches the swine of their evening meal till his soul finds peace.

As a preventive of nervous prostration, a sanitarium, compared to a hog, is a riot and the seashore is an insurrection. His peaceful grunt is a lullaby to tortured ears, and his placid oblivion of the flight of time is a rebuke to the strenuous.
As he pokes his nose into the moist earth—never furiously, but with calm and quiet—and upturns the succulent roots that he may add weight to his hams and breadth to his spareribs, to the ultimate profit of the butcher, we are reminded of the futility of crying out against the fate for which we are being fastened and taught to bow the head in humility.

Reach over the top of the fence and scratch his bristly back with a raspy cob and his legs, unable to support his excess burden of pleasure, crumble beneath him and he sinks to sleep, singing a song of contentment that rumbles forth from cavernous depth.

His humble limitations have not made the hog a pessimist. On the contrary, he is your true optimist.
His like knows no sorrows, and he goes to the slaughter house triumphant in the consciousness that no part of his life has been waste except his squeal.

Some Sportive Shots

You lose your coin

It comes to pass,

And goes to join

The lobster class.

"A fool" they in accents tart,
"Must quickly from his money part."

You toil and sweat

In sturdy style;

Together get

Another pile.

Then do they roses at you chuck?
Oh, no. They say, "A fool for luck."

With a smile on his face willie Palmer

Hopped a car disobeying his mom-
mer,

But he slipped from his place,
Now the smile's on the face

Of the undertaker and embalmer.

A local man got sore the other day because he missed the Hall for Honolulu. He would have caught it all right, but he had to go around one of the latest hats on his way to the landing.

Hand the average man a good club to defend himself with and you are in luck if he doesn't beat you to death.

A baseball game may be said to be like an apple when it scored.

There is this difference between running and Spelling—one is warm exercise and the other is school exercise.

A sporty young fellow named 'Gene,
Got full one night in his machine,
He started to yell,
And ran in pell-mell—
His relatives keep the grave green.

Society note: Percy Piffle went fishing on Thursday and saw several men with good strings.

Quite a number of Kauaians have gone to Honolulu to attend the concert to be given this afternoon by the famous Sousa's Band.

Garden Island--Hawaiian Star

Both of these papers offered at slightly more than the price of one. Everybody on Kauai knows the Garden Island. It is improving with each issue, and is becoming more and more important to readers and advertisers. Its subscription rate is two dollars and fifty cents per year, postage paid.

The Hawaiian Star is now edited by Walter G. Smith and is under an energetic management. It has lately established cable connections with San Francisco and Washington, while its facilities for handling Honolulu and islands' news are unsurpassed. The rate for the Daily is eight dollars per year.

Our Clubbing Rate For Both One Year, is $9.15; Six Months, $4.85
Or, the GARDEN ISLAND and SEMI-WEEKLY STAR
